Dear Col. Beckwith:

Pursuant to my conversation with Col. Oelschig of your staff, I am enclosing samples of my office's product which you may find of use. I will place your name on our distribution list for future unclassified material. Your comments as to the utility of the publications, as well as suggestions regarding our future work in this area, would be appreciated.

During Col. Oelschig's visit to our facility, we shall be exploring the possibility of providing you with classified, including [redacted] finished intelligence. I shall also be putting him in contact with individuals in Washington who should be able to serve your mission's intelligence needs. If I can be of further aid to you, including introducing you to the relevant members of the intelligence and security communities, please feel free to call.

Sincerely,
